A participant in any IETF activity is deemed to accept all IETF rules of process, as documented in Best Current Practices RFCs and IESG Statements.

An "ask" from PANRG

The proposed Path-Aware Networking Research Group wants to produce a short draft cataloging what we've already tried, in path-aware networking, that has encountered problems.

Spencer agreed to start the draft, and will be collecting inputs from other folks.

If you've been involved in something that the research community should learn from, please drop a note to spencerdawkins.ietf@gmail.com, and let me know what the NAME of that project/proposal/mechanism was.

I'll circle back around and ask for details, but want to start with a list.

Thanks!
Update from NETDEV
(Mirja)
Coordinating Specifications and Interop Testing - Lars, Mark, Spencer draft-claise-semver-01 - Only a proposal (for now)

"Semantic Versioning and Structure for IETF Specifications"

Problem - open-source YANG models may stay in active development (forever? :-)

But - Need to publish new model versions more often than we can publish RFCs

Idea - working group controls structured document in version-controlled repository

Semantic version - MAJOR.MINOR.PATCH

MAJOR analogous to "obsoletes", MINOR to "updates", PATCH to errata

MAJOR = IETF consensus, MINOR = WG approval, PATCH = editor

Publish the necessary version as needed, don't publish each version as RFC
