IETF 101 Social Event

20 Mar 2018

The IETF 101 social event, hosted by Google and ICANN, will be held at the Science Museum on March 20, 2018.

At the IETF 101 social event you will explore three galleries at the Science Museum: the Energy Hall, Exploring Space, and Making the Modern World. Join us to see a full size replica of the Eagle, the lander that took astronauts Armstrong and Aldrin to the Moon in 1969, as well as the Apollo 10 command module, Stephenson's Rocket, Babbage's Difference Engine No. 1, Crick and Watson's DNA model and the first Apple computer! Transportation by bus will be provided. Approximate travel time to the Science Museum is 15 minutes.

Date: Tuesday, 20 March, 2018
Time: 19:00 to 23:00

Cost: $35 per ticket, limit to two per attendee.

Food and beverage: Enjoy delicious food, beer, wine and non-alcoholic beverages.

To purchase a ticket to the IETF 101 social event CLICK HERE, or purchase on-site at the IETF registration desk, subject to availability.

Note: You must first register for IETF 101 to purchase a social ticket.

Transportation from the Hilton London Metropole West Wing Foyer (IETF Registration Area) will be provided to and from the Science Museum starting at 18:30 this evening. Your social tickets will be checked before getting on the bus and once more at the Science Museum entry.

The first shuttle will return back to the Hilton London Metropole starting at 21:30 and will continue approximately every 15 minutes until the end of the event. If you opt not to take the coaches to the social event, please have your ticket ready upon arrival at the museum.
