Note Well

This is a reminder of IETF policies in effect on various topics such as patents or code of conduct. It is only meant to point you in the right direction. Exceptions may apply. The IETF's patent policy and the definition of an IETF "contribution" and "participation" are set forth in BCP 79; please read it carefully.

As a reminder:

- By participating in the IETF, you agree to follow IETF processes and policies.
- If you are aware that any IETF contribution is covered by patents or patent applications that are owned or controlled by you or your sponsor, you must disclose that fact, or not participate in the discussion.
- As a participant in or attendee to any IETF activity you acknowledge that written, audio, video, and photographic records of meetings may be made public.
- Personal information that you provide to IETF will be handled in accordance with the IETF Privacy Statement.
- As a participant or attendee, you agree to work respectfully with other participants; please contact the ombudsteam (<https://www.ietf.org/contact/ombudsteam/>) if you have questions or concerns about this.

Definitive information is in the documents listed below and other IETF BCPs. For advice, please talk to WG chairs or ADs:

- BCP 9 (Internet Standards Process)
- BCP 25 (Working Group processes)
- BCP 25 (Anti-Harassment Procedures)
- BCP 54 (Code of Conduct)
- BCP 78 (Copyright)
- BCP 79 (Patents, Participation)

  - https://github.com/CalConnect/PUBLIC\_DRAFTS/tree/master/vpoll
  - Calendar Sharing (shipping now, but doing HTTP badly, so ... informational?)
- Recharter: 10 min

caldav-attachments

- Horrible abuse of HTTP
- But it's already in the field, so plan is to publish as informational
- Bron has taken over as Shepherd
- Awaiting AD approval
- Next steps: publish as informational

eventpub-extensions

- Awaiting AD approval
- Daniel is Shepherd
- Next steps: await reviews/approval

jscalendar

- See Robert's slides
- Was in working group last call, some last minute issues found during implementations led to changes.
- Next steps: short working group last call followed by submit for publication

Relationship with TZdist

- Discussion at CalConnect in February
- Should IANA host a tzdist authoritative server?
- Do we want to look at an ID-based rather than name based canonical set of timezones to avoid the politics of naming?
- There's tzdist bis work:
  - <https://datatracker.ietf.org/doc/draft-murchison-tzdist-geolocate/>
  - Should we take that on in this group?

CalConnect work

- Many drafts in CalConnect PUBLIC_DRAFTS repository are work which should come to IETF
- “Running code” and companies who want to keep their roadmap private has led to work happening in CalConnect until drafts are almost complete, because interop tests can be done without media speculation.
- Two drafts in good shape to bring to IETF now:
  - Vpoll
  - Subscription upgrade
- Next steps: call for adoption for these two
- Option: call for adoption for other things (autodiscovery, push, sharing) that are partly done at CalConnect and encourage work to come over here.

Recharter

- Our existing charter doesn't reflect work currently being done.
- Explicitly bring in tz work?
- Explicitly mention current and planned drafts?
- Mention ongoing maintenance of existing standards.

Other business

- Review of milestones
- Plans for Montreal
- Other proposed new work
- “Friends of email” dinner tomorrow night
  - 7pm at
