Open Meeting

Mirja Kühlewind & Wes Hardaker
IETF-109, Nov 17, 2020

Note Well

This is a reminder of IETF policies in effect on various topics such as patents or code of conduct. It is only meant to point you in the right direction. Exceptions may apply. The IETF's patent policy and the definition of an IETF "contribution" and "participation" are set forth in BCP 79; please read it carefully.

As a reminder:

- By participating in the IETF, you agree to follow IETF processes and policies.
- If you are aware that any IETF contribution is covered by patents or patent applications that are owned or controlled by you or your sponsor, you must disclose that fact, or not participate in the discussion.
- As a participant in or attendee to any IETF activity you acknowledge that written, audio, video, and photographic records of meetings may be made public.
- Personal information that you provide to IETF will be handled in accordance with the IETF Privacy Statement.
- As a participant or attendee, you agree to work respectfully with other participants; please contact the ombudsteam (<https://www.ietf.org/contact/ombudsteam/>) if you have questions or concerns about this.

Definitive information is in the documents listed below and other IETF BCPs. For advice, please talk to WG chairs or ADs:

Evolvability, Deployability, & Maintainability (EDM) Program (10 mins) - Tommy

Internet Threat Model (model-t) Program (10 mins) - Stephen

Open Mic (10 mins)

Restructuring IAB programs

Restructuring programs into two new “tracks”:

Technical Programs

Administrative Support Groups

Goal: Increase transparency, visibility, and openness of the architectural work done by the IAB

Note: RSOC and the Future Editor Model Dev Program are not part of the restructuring and not affected in any way!

Restructuring IAB programs (2)

Technical Programs

- Short-lived
- focus on specific technical or architectural issues
- require both input from experts as well as community discussion
- Examples: Model-t and EDM

Admin Support Groups

- typically long-term activities
- help the IAB to fulfil their oversight or administrative responsibilities
- usually consists of a small, dedicated set of experts
- Examples: Technical plenary planning, IANA, and liaison

Please provide feedback on architecture-discuss@iab.org or Github!
