

IETF 113 Plenary Minutes

Wednesday, 23 March 2022, Vienna and Online

All Slides: IETF 113 Plenary

1. Welcome (Lars Eggert)

Lars Eggert welcomed the community to IETF 113.

2. Host Presentation (Yuefeng Qiu, Huawei)

The IETF thanked Yuefeng Qiu of Huawei for hosting IETF 113.

3. Brief Updates

3.1. IETF

Slides: IETF Chair Plenary Report

3.2. Tools Team

Slides: Tools Team Report, IETF 113

3.3. IAB

Slides: Internet Architecture Board \(IAB\) Report

3.4. IRTF

Slides: Internet Research Task Force Plenary Report

3.5. IETF LLC

Slides: IETF Administration LLC Report

3.6. IETF Trust

Slides: IETF Trust Report, IETF 113

4. In Memoriam

John Scudder said a few words in remembrance of Susan R. Harris, who passed away in March 2022.

5. Recognition

Mirja Kühlewind thanked outgoing IAB members Ben Campbell and Jared Mauch.

Lars Eggert thanked outgoing IESG members Benjamin Kaduk and Martin Vigoureux.

5. Open Mic Sessions

5.1. IETF LLC Board

Barry Leiba: Jay [Daley], I want to thank you for relocating to London in preparation for our meeting there, making sure that you're local and helping out. I expect you to continue your nomadic life as we make up meetings in Bangkok and Madrid, but that's not why I got up here. I wanted to talk about the IETF endowment for a bit. We have now, for several meetings, had an option on the registration page to donate a little money to the IETF. I've been doing it for the last several meetings, since it's been available, and it's an easy way to chuck a few extra bucks there. I was talking with Lee-Berkeley [Shaw] during the Hackathon, and she said that money is going to the endowment now and it's getting the benefit of the matched funds from ISOC. So I just wanted to encourage everybody to take advantage of that. It's just an easy, check-the-box, put in whatever you can throw at us and continue supporting the IETF financially as well as technically. Thanks.

Lars Eggert: Thank you, Barry. That's great. I didn't hear a question, but that's okay!

[Laughter]

Lars Eggert: Do we have anybody else queueing up? I don't think so. This was very short; thank you very much.

5.2. Internet Engineering Steering Group

Lars Eggert welcomed incoming Area Directors Paul Wouters (Security) and Andrew Alston (Routing).

*

Lars Eggert: Questions for the IESG, please? Do we have people in the queue?

[The mic line is empty.]

Lars Eggert: I think you guys forgot how this works.

[Laughter]

Lars Eggert: I'll take it, but I'm confused. Okay, no questions for the IESG at all? So be it, thank you.

5.3. Internet Architecture Board

Mirja Kühlewind: I hope this doesn't mean we get all the questions now!

Lars-Johan Liman: This is not actually a question, but offering as a volunteer. You mentioned that you are looking for a volunteer to sit on the Root Server System Governance Working Group.

Mirja Kühlewind: Thank you very much, but I think you have to write us an email for that.

Lars-Johan Liman: I am already on it; that's the point. If anyone here wants to know about what is going on in that working group, I think I am the only member from the actual Working Group who is here. So if you have any questions, come and see me. I am here if you want to talk about it.

Mirja Kühlewind: Okay, thank you for showing your face so people can find you. This is definitely a position where we are looking for a qualified volunteer who can bring in some knowledge and help guide the process there.

Jared Mauch: One of the things that is always a unique challenge is there are all these positions that the IAB ends up appointing for, and so definitely talk to your local IAB member. We are always looking for good candidates for many of the positions, so if you have extra time, please let us know.

Mirja Kühlewind: Some of these positions we need very specific expertise, so it's not a huge set of candidates we can draw from. It's always hard to find a diverse set of candidates, and selecting people who might bring in some more diversity to some of these boards. The more volunteers we have for any of these positions, the better.

[The mic line is empty.]

Mirja Kühlewind: You really, really, want to go out and enjoy life here. Me too, it's fine! Okay, three, two, one. Okay, thank you, everybody.