Note Well

This is a reminder of IETF policies in effect on various topics such as patents or code of conduct. It is only meant to point you in the right direction. Exceptions may apply. The IETF's patent policy and the definition of an IETF "contribution" and "participation" are set forth in BCP 79; please read it carefully.

As a reminder:

- By participating in the IETF, you agree to follow IETF processes and policies.
- If you are aware that any IETF contribution is covered by patents or patent applications that are owned or controlled by you or your sponsor, you must disclose that fact, or not participate in the discussion.
- As a participant in or attendee to any IETF activity you acknowledge that written, audio, video, and photographic records of meetings may be made public.
- Personal information that you provide to IETF will be handled in accordance with the IETF Privacy Statement.
- As a participant or attendee, you agree to work respectfully with other participants; please contact the ombudsteam (<https://www.ietf.org/contact/ombudsteam/>) if you have questions or concerns about this.

Definitive information is in the documents listed below and other IETF BCPs. For advice, please talk to WG chairs or ADs:

Meeting logistics

- Onsite participants in sessions and other IETF-controlled rooms are required to wear a FFP2/N95 masks or better.
- Active speakers – those who are at the front of the room presenting or speaking in the mic queue – can remove their masks while speaking.
- A special version of Meetecho designed to work on mobile devices is available for in-person participants. If you are in person and choose to use the full version of Meetecho, please make sure your audio and microphone are muted.
- Everyone must use Meetecho to sign the bluesheets.
- Everyone must join the Meetecho queue in order to speak at the microphone.
- Onsite and remote speakers can share and control slides from Meetecho.
