Hackdemo Happy Hour

Monday, 4 November, Time: 19:00 - 20:00, Room: Ground Floor Foyer

Join us for an in depth look at some of the great projects from the IETF Hackathon. This is your opportunity to meet with the teams behind the projects and get answers to any and all of the questions you may have about what they did, how they did it, and the impact it has on work going on at the IETF.

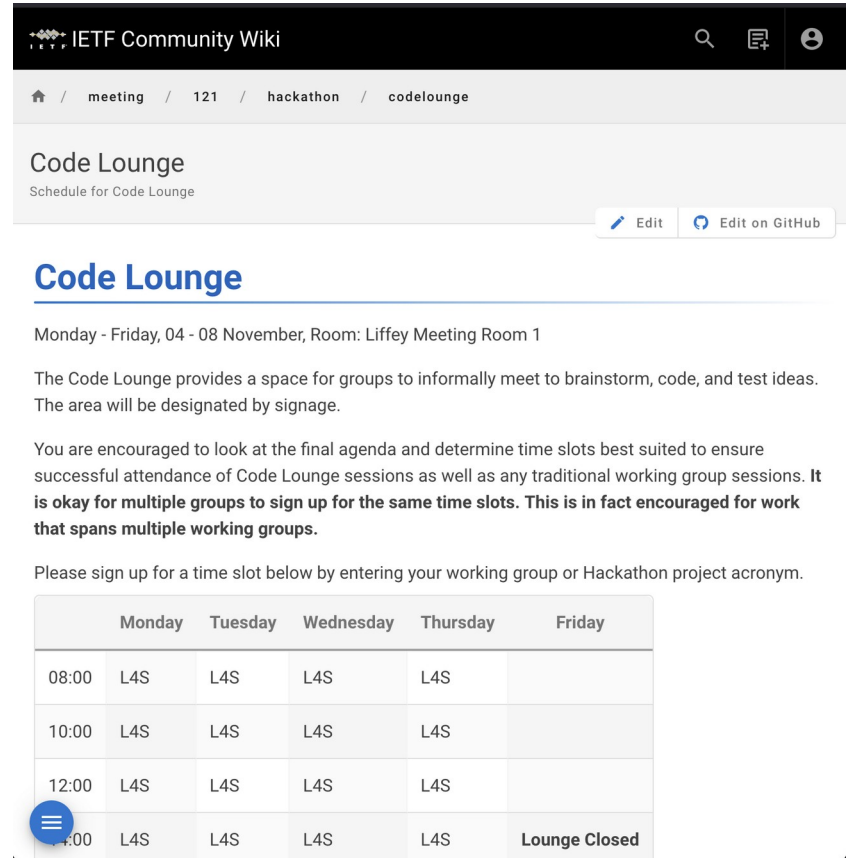

Snacks will be provided and a cash bar will be available.

Hackathon teams are welcome and encouraged to add their project in the table below.

Code Lounge

Monday - Friday, 04 - 08 November, Room: Liffey Meeting Room 1

The Code Lounge provides a space for groups to informally meet to brainstorm, code, and test ideas. The area will be designated by signage.

You are encouraged to look at the final agenda and determine time slots best suited to ensure successful attendance of Code Lounge sessions as well as any traditional working group sessions. It is okay for multiple groups to sign up for the same time slots. This is in fact encouraged for work that spans multiple working groups.

Please sign up for a time slot below by entering your working group or Hackathon project acronym.

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
